THE WILL FOR THE DEED.

BY CAROLINE & MASON,

No sword have I, iin baitle blade, Nor shining spear ; how shall I aid My country in her great Crasade?

I cannot sow with gold the sod,

Like Dragon's teeth, and from the clud See armed men rise, battle-shot, I may not stand in mort or hall;

An I shout aloud great Freedom's ruli. Come to the rescue, one and all ! " I am a woman, weak and slight,

No voice to plead, no arm to fight. Yet burning to support the right. How shall I aid my country's cause? How help avenge her toumpted laws ?

Alas, my woman's heart makes pause. With oil and what I may not go. Where woun fell men toss to and fro Repeath the invider's hand laid low. My little child looks up to me And Hips a stranger, mightier plea; God wills where he is, I should be.

Who knows my heart, perchange, for ta-Has other work them now I see.

"They also serve, who stand and wait."-Oh, golden worlds !-- and not to late! My soul accepts her humbler fate.

Content to serve in the way But hall the devening of that day,

When my beloved Lend shall rise, a La! Freedom fives, and Treason dies

one of its recent attacks upon the Federal cause, claims relationship with the traitors of the Houth in the following emphatic buggage:

"The feeling is universal that if by mediation we can do any good to both parties we ought, nt any risk of possible in alt, to do it. Failing to have had about the same amount of "moral this, there is a feeling, that is now becoming weight" as their English adversate, who told very general, that if we cannot stop the effection of blood by modiation, we ought to give ent whole moral weight to our own English kith and kin, who have so gallantly striven so long their liberties against a mongrel race of plunderers and oppressors. This public put it. This is what is said, not only in London, but in Manchester and Liverpool, Yorkshire, and in Leicester and Sussex."

We will not pretend to decide in regard to since the first boar of the "moral weight," because it is much easier. Lorn John Russeau. to estimate the influence of the immoral weight which the Tixus has thrown into the scale, in favor of the rebellion and war in this country. Could the thinkers and morebonts, the writers and manufacturers of England have truly it left us gether, appreciated their own interests they would have perity and progress of the American I nion perity and progress of the American I nion perity and progress of the American I nion a vessel against another country into the would have recoiled upon themselves. Could have realized the importance of peace in all and the men so inherfering, if captured. this country, they would have thrown their "moral weight" into the balances two years or more since, when the threats of war and disunion were so openly made by South Carolina, and they would have denounced the possible contingency that England would sympathiz with and aid them in a scheme whose whole pretext and occasion was to perpetuate, build up, and extend shavery and reopen the slave trade. But the runoral weight" of the London Trues and its coworkers was withheld from the side of freedom and justice, and under the mo-tives of a lass self-interest they have chosen to aid the rebellion, by a negative as well as a positive course. The consequence are now upportive course. The consequence are now upportive course. The consequence are now upportive decreases the consequence are now upported by the consequence of their entire commerce and the derangement of the de indistry than they can gain from the prospective advantages of a commerce with the revolted States for a much longer period. If Great Britain would receive benefits by American commerce they are to be gained by a profitable intercourse with one prosperous Union, facgreater than can be afforded by two hostile fors.

And now for an incident of personal adventure. Some two years since, during the most excited political comparign in our history, a distinguished stranger was unnounced as about to visit our country. Public expectation was wrought up to a high degree of pleasure and evidenment. The telegraph flacked the news of his arrival on the shores of the New World and as he passed through the provincial cities of lock we allegiance to the noble Queen Victoria, the cays and hours were counted which would with the shores of the New World will be called the news of the New World and as he passed through the provincial cities of lock we allegiance to the noble Queen Victoria, the cays and hours were counted which would with the provincial cities of locks. He had seen the wretched condition of Nothern manners of Virginia, and the magnitude social life of South Carolina. The Drine arrived at Richmond, life sout, of the present confiderable government, and was there received with the most delicate courtesy and grace. The people, with all the exquisite relinement of that motopolis, treated him with a decorum that was painfully paneltions. He saw at a glance the superiority of the rivilization of Richmond, rode out tha next day (Sunday) to see a plantation where the happy children of Africa were basking in the glories of Chemical and Carolina Sarrows, and are ment and continued to the control of the cities, and the barbarous boorishness of Northern ment and cultivation, and by invitation visited: some of the public buildings. THE ELECTIONS AND THE WAR.

The voice of the people has been heard and the Government, so long forwarded is now to the Adminstration and its dilly dallying policy falls with it. The war will not be prolonged Government, and those only who gain their supyort therefrom. Mr. Lincoln has farmed our fat contracts until the reputation of his party gains nothing when compared to the Democrais who to their credit inever field any but trusty followers from the public crib. The served in carnest—by a vigorous campaign, re- against it, sound or fallacious, in his own mind. gardless of party squabbles—the power behind the throne itself and that power dictates a policy of vigor and determination.

MISSOURI ELECTION. St. Louis, 5th.

The radical emancipation ticket in this educity is undoubtedly elected. The vote in the first congressional district is very close and cannot be decided till the army is heard from. Blairs friends claim his election but the radicals say the vote in the urmy will elect Knox.

In the second district Howe, radical, is undoubtedly elected by a handsome majority. Returns from the interior are meante but the emancipation ticket

THE WAR IN THE WEST.

HELENA, Ark., 4th.

Col. Cameron of the 84th Ind., who was recently bearer of a flag of truce to Gen. Hindman, commanding the rebel forces at Little Bock Yurnishes the following: The truce party embraced Capt. Serrill of the $4th Ind., Adj't. McRenseie 9th Iown and 11 men as an escort.

They left Helena on the 21st ult, and took the oute to Roes Rock ferry and on the third day arrivad at Brownsville. Capt. Wolan acting Quarter master C. S. A. and commanding the post, telegraphed to Gen. Holmes who sent Col. Anderson with a train on the Memphis and Little Rock call road.

Col. Cameron delivered his disortches consisting of two letters from Gen. Curtis and one from Gen. Shermen at Memphis, to Gen. Holmes in person. Holmes professed his desire to conduct the war on amorable principles, and under the rules of warfare among civilized nations, and even on christian principles, and said that he was filled with horror by the tales of bayon and destruction brought to him, which he was forced to believe. Many instances of onlyages were cited to which Col. Cameron replied-that the General Commanding had go knowl dge of such occurrences, and that if they Brown, leaving the Hair soft and beautiful. Sold by all rested, they would surely be punished. Gen. Holmes said be know Curtis in his youth, and had expected him to pursue a fair and honorable warfare; that he, for his part, was determined to resist organized forces as long as it could be done. and unless their independence was acknowledged. they would fight till they were externibuted. --While he fought with an organized force, he sup pressed the patriotism of the people neir Helena and provented them from guerrilla warfare. But should Lee be begien in Va., and Bragg in Ky., be ernshed the people would rise as individuals and

Col. Cameron found the roads leading to Whiteher from Helena was all well watered and supplied with forage, beyond the prairie, they will soon be impassable. The rebels are stacking the prairie hay near Brownsville and by boats bringing argoes from the bottom lands to Little Rock.-Through a scarcity of lerage they had dismounted t large portion of their cavalry including the 25th Texas. The Times Washington spesial contains the following: Dispatches of the greatest importance and which may effect a change in the whole negect of the war, were to-day submitted by the French Legation to the Secretary of State. An informal needing of the Cabinet was held to-day and an adjournment held to this ovening when it reassembled at 5 o'clock. Gen. Halleck being present on special invitation of the President, It is believed that decisions of more importance than any yet made in the curse of the war have been arrived at and will be announced before the end of the week. The air is pregnated with rumors of Military and Unione thanges, Military changes are positively ordered and it is believed that certain Cabinet mini-ters segard those changes as a condemnation, giving them no alternative but to resign.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to precure
a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here sared aventors.

During eight months the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made on their rejected applications SIX. TEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his flower, by the Commitstoner of Patents, R. H. EDDY, Buston, Dep. 20, 1861.

GEO, M. GRIGGS.

A MERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS.

Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for my THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that is non-pending. Such analysisable proof of great falent and ability on his part leads not recommend of inventors to apply to him to procue fuel patents as they may be sure of having his most faithful attention, because of making his most faithful attention because of making his most faithful attention because of making his most reasonable charges.
